for J. Worrall,

In which are included above 1200 Draughts from Original Manuscript Precedents, of Deeds to various Purposes, never before printed.

WOOD'S Compleat Body of Conveyancing in Theory and Practice. Part I. contains the Theory, wherein the various Ways and Methods of Acquiring, Forfeiting, Conveying, Limiting and settling all kinds of Estates, as well Real as Personal; and also the Nature, different Forms, Parts, Operations and Effects of all kinds of Deeds and Common Assurances, Fines and Recoveries, are fully treated of. Part II. (in two Volumes) contains the Practice or Precedents of Feoffments, Grants, Bargain and Sale, Leases, Releases, Declarations and Limitations of Uses and Trusts, Marriage Settlements, and Private Acts of Parliament, (made for settling the most considerable Estates in Great Britain and Ireland;) Mortgages, Leases, Assignments, Deeds of Charter party and Copartnership, Bills, Bonds, Releases, Letters of Attorney, &c. Deeds for securing Annuities, Family Estates, &c. out of Bank, East-India, South-Sea Stock, and other Public Funds; and in general all Deeds any ways requisite in Mercantile, Maritime and Plantation Affairs; with Observations and Opinions of the most Eminent Conveyancers. Selected from many thousand Manuscript Precedents.
The whole digested in a Method intirely new, avoiding all Repetitions, and containing a greater Variety of useful Precedents, than all other Books upon the same Subject now extant.

O F A L L T H E

Common and Statute LAW BOOKS of this Realm, and some others relating thereunto, from their first Publication to Easter Term 1753; giving an Account of their several Editions, antient Printers, Dates and Prices, and wherein they differ.

A New EDITION, with IMPROVEMENTS.

P R E F A C E.

AFTER many Months diligent Search into the Editions of the several LAW BOOKS, in the Year 1731, I published Bibliotheca Legum: And therein endeavoured to oblige the Public in impartially describing the various Dates and Price of every Book of Value, and taking Notice where any former Editions were deficient or varied; this being never before attempted, gave me a pleasing Hope, it would be useful and acceptable, and to make it still more so, I have corrected and improved every Edition since, and also this now published, by printing the Titles of the Books more fully, and have added not only the Names of the antient Law Printers, (viz. CAXTON, WYNKEN DE WORDE, LETTOU, MACKLINIA, PINSON, & al.) but many Books and Dates not in any former Edition of this CATALOGUE, for some of which I am beholden to a most curious Work, intitled, Typographical Antiquities, published in Quarto, in the Year 1749, by JOSEPH AMES, F. R. S. &c.

Since the Publication of the last Edition of this CATALOGUE, several Law Books being become very scarce, and others out of print, have made great Alteration in the Prices, and some are so difficult to get, that no certain Price can be fixed: On the contrary, a much greater Number are lessened in their Value; in both which Cases I have made proper Corrections.

In looking often into the Law Reports, I find great Omissions in the Tables of the Names of the Cases printed and prefixed to each Book, there being scarce one Report without a Fault of this Kind, which must greatly disappoint Gentlemen when a Case is cited without naming the Page (which often happens) and they can't find it in the Table to the Book so referred to; to remedy this great Deficiency, I fully intended to print the Names of the omitted Cases as an Addition to this CATALOGUE, but this is better supplied, and the Names of those Cases wrong spelt corrected, in a most useful and laborious Work lately published, intitled, REPERTORIUM JURIDICUM: Or, an Index to all the Cases in the Year Books, Entries, Reports, and Abridgments.

Although I published this CATALOGUE with a Design to oblige Gentlemen in describing the various Editions of the Books, I have always been careful of offending my Brethren, and therefore fixed the full Price to most Books, not intending to impose on any One, but to shew their utmost Value; this I am sensible has hurt my self most, it being insinuated by some of the Trade, that they under-sell the Booksellers at Temple-Bar, and when it is in their Favour, produce my CATALOGUE as their Voucher. Whereas the Booksellers near Temple-Bar, being Proprietors of the Copies of a great Part of the LAW BOOKS, and having more frequent Opportunities than Others of buying Libraries in that Science, can afford and do sell them New or Old, of any Editions whatsoever, as cheap if not cheaper than Others.

P R E F A C E.

What I have said in my Observations on the different Editions of Books, and wherein they vary, may be depended upon; and as the Publick have been so indulgent to encourage my Endeavours, I doubt not of preserving their Favour by the Care I have taken in this Edition.
